Sir,

I have the honor to state that the ryots of the Villages in the Hobli of Kibbanahalli, Tiptur Taluk, petitioned the Amildar of Tiptur praying that a Sante may be arranged to be held in Kibbanahalli on every Thursday, as no Sante is being held in any place within a distance of 10 miles from Kibbanahalli. The matter was first discussed by the Taluk Board of Tiptur who say that the prayer of the the Villagers may be granted. In Submitting the Taluk Boards' above resolution, the Amildar of Tiptur reports that two of the members of the Taluk Board said that it was against the "Mamool" to hold the Sante' at Kibbanahalli and that it would affect their trade; that the majority of the members were for arranging the Sante' at Kibbanahalli; and that as alleged by the Villagers the Sante's to which they now resort are very far from Kibbanahalli and that the holding of a Sante' there may be Sanctioned. The Sub Divisional Officer, Gubbi also recommends the proposal for Sanction. The Subject was before the District Board in their meeting held on the 29th July 1909 and a Copy of their Resolution thereon is herewith Submitted. In these these 3 circumstances, the holding of a Sante at Kibbanahalli may be Sanctioned.

2. The file of Vernacular Correspondence ending with the Gubbi Sub Divisional Officers yadi no 834 dated 9th June 09 is herewith forwarded for reference.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
your most obedient Servant
